The EAPCI Elections 2016: making a fundamental contribution to the advancement of our Association

Michael Haude*, EAPCI President-Elect
Medical Clinic I, Städtische Kliniken Neuss, Lukaskrankenhaus GmbH, Neuss, Germany

Next year there will be important elections for the new Board of the European Association of Percutaneous Cardiovascular Interventions (EAPCI), which will take office and serve your Association for the period May 2016 - May 2018. Applications are open for the positions of President-Elect, secretary, and treasurer. Under the guidance of the current EAPCI past-president Jean Fajadet a nominating committee has been selected consisting of seven distinguished and well-known interventional cardiologists who met during the recent ESC congress in London. On 15th September 2015, the official announcement and “call for” was launched. Applications will be considered up until the deadline of 30th November 2015.

The election candidates will be selected by the EAPCI Nominating Committee between December 2015 and mid January 2016. The EAPCI Nominating Committee has the responsibility to propose a balanced list of candidates for all positions, ensuring a cross-section of members from different countries and with different interests. Candidates may be invited to meet via phone conference with the EAPCI Nominating Committee as part of the final selection process, the date of which will be confirmed in due course.

Hereafter, the announcement of candidates will occur via e-newsletters, the EAPCI website, and EuroIntervention mid-January 2016 followed by the online voting period from 30th January to 29th February, 2016. The election results will be officially announced during the EAPCI general assembly at EuroPCR in Paris next May.

membership in close cooperation with the European Heart House dedicated staff and make recommendations on work processes and volunteers’ assignments.

The EAPCI Treasurer role and responsibilities are to act as representative or spokesperson of the EAPCI, ascertain in partnership with the President that the EAPCI Board focuses on strategic planning and policy development, supervise finances and provide guidance to the EAPCI President and Board especially concerning long-term financial planning and management, unbudgeted expenses, participate in fund-raising activities and ensure full transparency of all transactions and compliance with current regulations, cooperate with the ESC Chief Executive Officer, Chief Finance Officer, Specialty Centre Director and Association Head of Department (HOD) in preparing 3-year business plans, review budgetary and financial issues of the EAPCI and report on financial matters to the EAPCI General Assembly.

Who can apply?
To be eligible, candidates must fulfil the following requirements:
- Be an interventionalist
- Be a member of EAPCI. If you are not yet a member, join now!
- Be active in one of the ESC member countries
- Be a member of one of the 56 ESC National Cardiac Societies or of an Interventional Working Group
- Have percutaneous intervention as primary interest
- Provide a letter of endorsement of an Interventional Working Group or a National Cardiac Society
- Not hold an executive position currently (President, Vice-President, President-Elect) in a National Cardiac Society or in the European Society of Cardiology (unless this happens during the course of their term or that they consider stepping down from their current executive position in case they are elected to serve within EAPCI)
- Make him/herself available to meet via phone conference with the EAPCI Nominating Committee as part of the selection process, if required
- In addition, candidates are recommended to be a Fellow of the European Society of Cardiology (FESC)

In summary, these are exciting but important times for the future of the EAPCI. I strongly encourage the members of EAPCI and the respective national interventional working group members to contribute to this process either as candidate for one of these three important positions or as voter during the online voting period from 30th January to 29th February 2016.
